Hotel Rates & Information

Following, you'll find information for several of the most popular local hotels offering UC Berkeley discounts. Rates given are the discount rates and do not include tax. These are subject to availability and dates, so please call in advance to confirm. Make sure to inform the reservations clerk that you would like to take advantage of the UC Berkeley rate, when applicable. Each guest is responsible for his or her room charges. Please note that most hotels in Berkeley do not have airconditioning. A partial list of local shuttle services is on the last page.

Berkeley Marina Doubletree Hotel

(510) 548-7920 • 200 Marina Boulevard, Berkeley

Right next to the Berkeley Marina and the freeway, the Radisson offers beautiful vistas of the bay and the hills. There is not much within walking distance except possibly the Fourth Street shops. Unlike the Emeryville hotels, however, the Radisson has a bus line to downtown Berkeley via AC Transit 51M (about a 30-40 minute ride), and from there you have BART access or a 15 minute walk to Evans Hall. Free parking.

$119.32 single or double standard/$139.32 marina view; UCB rate

Claremont Resort Hotel

(510) 843-3000 • Ashby & Domingo, Berkeley

A nationally renowned 5-star resort hotel, the Claremont offers striking bay views from its picturesque location at the foot of the Berkeley/ Oakland hills. It is near the popular College Avenue shops and restaurants, but not readily accessible to BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit) or the campus. The corporate room rate includes parking if you plan to use a rental car. AC Transit bus 7 travels on Belrose Avenue nearby and can take you to the south edge of campus, where a 10 minute walk will get you to Evans Hall.

$159.00 classic superior, $159.00 superior with bay view, $179.00 deluxe without bay view, $209 deluxe with bay view

Durant Hotel

(510) 845-8981 • 2600 Durant Avenue, Berkeley

A slightly smaller older hotel, the Durant Hotel nevertheless remains a popular choice for visitors by virtue of being the closest to campus. At one block south of campus, it's a 10-15 minute walk to Evans Hall, and just minutes away from numerous eateries and bookstores favored by the college crowd. A 15-minute walk or AC Transit 51 to Berkeley's downtown gives access to San Francisco via the BART rail system.

$120.00 single, $135.00 double, depending on the day; UCB rate,

Four Points by Sheraton

(510) 547-7888 • 1603 Powell Street, Emeryville

The restaurants and nightlife of San Francisco are within easy access of the Four Points' freeway location for those with a car. UC Berkeley is also a short drive away, but if you plan to walk or take public transportation, this isn't the place for you. Free parking. Call as far in advance as possible, and tell the reservations clerk you are coming on UC Berkeley business; you will need to show proof of this when you check in--your confirmation letter from us should be sufficient.

$155.00 + tax, standard one or two beds, $170.00 + tax deluxe

French Hotel

(510) 548-9930 • 1538 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley

In the middle of Berkeley's "gourmet ghetto", the cozy 18 room French Hotel sits directly across from internationally famous Chez Panisse on the quiet Northside of Berkeley. A pleasant half-hour's walk will take you to Evans Hall, while 15 minutes in another direction will get you to the downtown Berkeley BART station. AC Transit route 52 passes by the corner of Cedar and Shattuck and can bring you to within a 5 minute walk of Evans Hall. There is a cafe in the hotel, but no restaurant. Tell them you are a visitor to the Economics Department, on UC business.

$85.00 + tax per night

Gramma's Rose Garden Inn

(510) 549-2145 • 2740 Telegraph Avenue, Berkeley

A perennial favorite of conference guests, Gramma's offers a gracious setting of rose gardens and elegant interiors 8 blocks south of campus. A 30-minute walk will take you to Evans Hall or downtown Berkeley and the BART station. AC Transit buses 40 and 64 also pass by on Telegraph and can take you to the south edge of campus or to the BART station. Complimentary breakfast. Tell them you are a visitor to the Economics Department of UC Berkeley.

$109 single or double, $119.00 garden, $139.00 deluxe, $159.00 junior suite, Sunday-Thursday

$139.00 single or double, $149.00 garden, $179.00 deluxe, $139.00 junior suite, weekends

Holiday Inn

(510) 658-9300 • 1800 Powell Street, Emeryville

Across the freeway from the Four Points, Holiday Inn offers the same amenities in a typical corporate hotel. Recently remodeled, Holiday Inn is right by the freeway for San Francisco getaways. Not for those who wish to walk or take the bus to campus. The Emeryville marina just beyond is nice for walking and a great view of the bay. Free parking. Courtesy shuttle to the UC campus. Ask for the UC Berkeley rate.

$139 for a king or two double beds.

Oakland Marriott City Center

(510) 451-4000 • 1001 Broadway, Oakland

For the ultimate in access to San Francisco and the Bay Area, the Oakland Marriott sits on top of a BART station in the heart of the rapidly revitalizing downtown Oakland. A short BART ride will take you to downtown Berkeley where a 15 minute walk or AC Transit buses 8 or 65 will take you to within a 5 minute walk of Evans Hall. Nearby, Oakland's bustling Chinatown offers plenty of dining opportunities. Parking is available.

$163.00 one king/two doubles

Waterfront Plaza Hotel

(800) 729-3638 • 10 Washington Street, Oakland

It's a luxury hotel on the Jack London Square's Waterfront, with decks overlooking the San Francisco Bay. Restaurants, shops and entertainment on the Square are just steps away. A block away from the hotel, AC Transit bus 52 travels on Broadway Street to the nearest BART station, which is 10 blocks away. Ask for "UC Berkeley Economics" rate.

$149.00 king
